COMMENT: OMB and the Department have determined that the best course of action is to withdraw this emergency information collection request (ICR). The Department will resubmit this request as a standard non-emergency ICR in short order. Upon resubmitting this ICR for OMB approval, the Department will provide public notice in the Federal Register and provide 30 days for the public to comment. The supporting statement in the resubmitted ICR will address concerns raised by OMB to date. Lastly, OMB and the Department have agreed that the Department will pursue rulemaking to address the Department's desire to collect "true copies" of contracts from covered institutions.
