

A professional headshot of Art Young, a man with short brown hair, smiling. He is wearing a grey suit jacket, a light blue dress shirt, and an orange patterned tie. The background is a plain, light grey color.

Art Young, FAAC®

University of Arizona

Art Young, FAAC® serves as an assistant vice president of enrollment management and the executive director in the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid (OSFA) at the University of Arizona. He has a wide educational and professional background, including work and leadership experience in almost every sector of the financial aid industry (public, private, proprietary, and student lending). In a prior life, he taught high school for seven years, a foundation which continues to underscore his passion for education, access, and supporting student success.

A former president of both the Rocky Mountain Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (RMASFAA) and the Utah Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (UASFAA), Art has trained and mentored colleagues and students across the country and in a variety of settings. He has served twice on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA) and is proud to have earned all 17 NASFAA professional credentials and be recognized as an FAAC® through NASFAA's Certified Financial Aid Administrator® Program. Art received the UASFAA Outstanding Service Award in 2009, RMASFAA's Oscar R. "Jack" Hendrix Award in 2010, the NASFAA Regional Leadership Award in 2018, RMASFAA's Ron Smout Award for Teaching and Mentoring in 2019, and the Meritorious Achievement Award from the Western Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (WASFAA) in 2021.